Red Diamond® Coffee & Tea Honored as One of the Best Places to Work in Birmingham

Birmingham, AL. (May 16, 2025) - Red Diamond® a fifth-generation, family-owned and operated coffee and tea company is proud to announce it has been named one of the “Best Places to Work 2025” in Birmingham, AL, by the Birmingham Business Journal.

This significant award recognizes Birmingham companies that prioritize a positive, engaged, flexible, and rewarding workplace culture. Red Diamond was selected based on anonymous employee surveys and a thorough evaluation of workplace policies, benefits, and practices.

“We are incredibly honored to be recognized as one of the best places to work in Birmingham,” said Bill Bowron, President, CEO, and Chairman of the Board of Red Diamond. “This award confirms our team’s dedication and shared commitment to producing not just great coffee and tea, but an environment for personnel to grow, advance, and thrive in the workplace. We prioritize our employee’s well-being as well as our exceptional products. This mindset produces positive results among our employees and throughout the markets we serve across the country.”

“At Red Diamond, our team is at the center of everything we do,” said Mary Ellen Wills, Senior Vice President of Human Resources. “Being recognized in this way motivates us to continue our focus on maintaining a positive and productive workplace, where team members are proud of their contributions and happy in their careers. Our 75-plus-acre campus and our world-class production facility create the perfect combination of beauty and function. We are very fortunate to work in this environment.”
